

The “Community Mentors” have been designed to create small communities across various segments of the basketball world, allowing for an even more personalized, relevant experience to its members.

The Community Mentors feature Professional, Men’s and Women’s College, and High School communities. Each community is led by one of Rising Coaches Consulting’s experienced mentors who have thrived in that particular space and are able to support members on a deeper level.

Community Mentors

Professional Community - Joe Prunty

23 years of NBA experience, three-time NBA champion; USA Men’s National Team Head Coach

Men’s College Community – Kevin Sutton

16 Years NCAA Division 1 Assistant, USA National Team Coach 3 Times

Women’s College Community - Heather Macy

Greensboro College Head Coach; has been a head coach at the Division 1, 2, and 3 levels

High School Community - Bryan Bartley

Head Coach at Friendship Academy; has coached at the Division 1 level and worked in the NBA as well

More Communities Coming Soon

“Community Mentors” Details

- $25/month
- Small monthly group meeting with your community mentor
  - Great opportunity for coaches to learn from experienced coaches with tailor-made presentations
  - Networking opportunities to connect with different coaches and administrators
  - Film study, networking, interviewing, and development
- Monthly mentor meetings with the entire Rising Coaches Consulting program
  - Monthly topics include Player Development, Player Evaluations, End of Game Scenarios, Being a Great Assistant Coach, and In-Game Adjustments
  - Great opportunity for coaches to get access to exclusive content and networking with experienced coaches and administrators